a note from David

Jesus welcomed and prayed for the little ones (Matthew 19:13-15). It’s why we have things like the Baby Blessing this Sunday. It’s also why the sound of children during worship is never a disruption. In fact, it was to those who thought children were a disruption that Jesus famously said, “Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such as these belongs the kingdom of heaven” (Mt 19:14). At the time, children were viewed as less important than grown-ups. But Jesus turned that view upside-down—not only by treating children as important people, but also by making the traits of children the traits of greatness to which all followers should aspire (Mt. 18:3-4). It is not great accolades and achievements that count but childlike humility and dependence upon God. On Sunday, we will pray for the little ones as Jesus did. Let’s also pray that in the attitude of our heart we might become more like them.
